Officials Do Not Attend at Pasadena Luncheon; Move to New Home Delayed

Chamber of Commerce directors today anticipated dining with the Pasadena board in the latter city, but unforeseen circumstances caused them to stay at home and transact routine business.

The co-operation of the Chamber in seeing that its provisions are enforced are desired. An invitation was received from the anti-annexation league of Los Angeles county asking that a representative of the chamber attend a banquet to be held at the California Country club in Culver City tomorrow night.

William P. Murphy of 1261 South Brand boulevard, as his name indicates, is Irish.

He has a keen sense of humor, as the Irish would indicate, and he uses it to good advantage in his household furnishings business.

Today, for instance, he is advertising 39 cent brooms for 33 cents. "Harry," he says, "for the price may be lower next week."

USHERS' CLUB HAS ANNUAL MEETING AND ELECTION

First Methodist Organization in Session; Program and Talks Hold Interest

The Ushers' and Greeters' club of the First Methodist Episcopal church held its annual meeting Monday night in the social hall of the church. The meeting was replete with interest, the first number in which all took an active part being an appetizing repast prepared by the women of the church.

Rev. Clyde Monroe Crist made the opening address and emphasized the high privilege of fellowship in the gathering where ways and means can be planned for better and increased service to the public. The pastor directed attention to the special province of the club to welcome newcomers and strangers to the church services.

A duet was sung by J. B. Clarke and W. A. Weber which so pleased that an encore was given.

Chief Usher Speaks

Henry Johnston, who has been chief usher for a number of years, made a brief address and told of his pleasure in performing the service and thanked his associates for their faithful co-operation.

Elwood Ingledue spoke for the young men of the church and said that while he did not wish to give advice to the older men, he would suggest that a greater opportunity be given the young fellows to assist in various lines of activity.

A musical trio by the Percy family, two brothers and a sister, was much appreciated. C. D. Lusby made a snappy address in which he exalted the value of cheerful living, saying that he was glad for three things: That he could whistle, talk, and sing. He advocated giving the young men the charge of ushering at the Sunday services.

Remarks by President

After a solo by J. D. Clarke, an address was made by the president of the club, William A. Goss, who reviewed the work of the past year and, in speaking of the fidelity to the tasks of life, quoted the late Theodore Roosevelt who said that a repetition of the tasks of life do not become monotonous if we put our hearts into them. Mr. Goss thought a union of brains and pep, young and old, would help the club.

Dr. H. V. Brown paid a tribute to the young men of the church, his remarks being followed by the election of officers for the following year, which resulted in W. A. Goss being chosen president and E. E. Osgood, secretary.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 15.—The supreme court ignored an application for a writ of habeas corpus to free Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, charged jointly with Arthur C. Burch with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, Los Angeles club man, when it convened here today. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 15.—The government's case against Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes, widely known socialist and author, who was under sentence here to ten years in the penitentiary for violation of the espionage laws, was dismissed today by Federal Judge Arbas Van Valkenburgh. Mrs. Stokes was tried and sentenced during the world war but the case was appealed to the federal circuit court of appeals on the ground that the charge to the jury was prejudicial.

ARBuckle JURY MAY BE COMPLETED THIS AFTERNOON

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—The prediction was made by Gavin McNab, chief counsel for Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle, as the second day of the film comedian's trial for manslaughter opened, that a jury will be completed late today. Five tentative jurors, including one woman, were in the box when court convened. George R. Morgan was the first talesman questioned today. Assistant District Attorney Isadore Golden returned from Chicago today with hints of a surprise to be sprung in the event the defense endeavors to place in evidence depositions regarding the physical condition of Virginia Rappe, obtained in Chicago.

LLOYD GEORGE MAY YET DECIDE ON GENERAL ELECTION

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The outcome of the unionist convention at Liverpool Wednesday and Thursday will settle the question of whether Premier Lloyd George will go to Washington to attend the armament conference, it was officially stated today. If the unionist convention supports the stand taken by Sir James Craig, Ulster's premier, and his cabinet, a general election will be called and Lloyd George will not go to Washington. The British premier has not yet received complete reports from the delegation at Washington, but it was announced that the British representatives at the American capital have plenipotentiary status and whatever action they take will receive the support of the cabinet. Lloyd George conferred with Lord Middleton and six other southern unionists who are opposed to partition of Ireland. Sinn Fein leaders have returned to London and it is possible they may meet the premier late today.

GERMANY TELLS ALLIES SHE CANNOT PAY INSTALLMENT

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—(By Radio)—Germany has unofficially notified the allies that she cannot pay the reparations installment, 500,000,000 gold marks, due by January 15, 1922. The International News Service was informed on the highest authority today that the German government has conveyed through unofficial channels to the allies the information that she is "at the end of her rope." All protests by the allies hereafter about Germany's failure to meet the reparations payments due will be met by the statement: "Try to get it!" Germany's attitude, it was made plain, is not one of defiance, but utter despair. The allied commission here, it is learned, is convinced of Germany's ability to pay. The experts attached to this commission are again going over the situation following Germany's action in notifying the allies of her inability to pay. According to German bankers and officials, it is doubtful if the inevitable efforts of the French to collect at least a part of the January payment will succeed. The German government, it can be stated, has determined to stand or fall on the decision that there must be a revision of the terms of the Versailles treaty.

CONSIDER BY-LAWS IN FORMATION OF ATHLETIC CLUB

Final Action on Adoption to Take Place at Gathering
Tomorrow Night

The reading of by-laws for the Glendale Athletic club claimed the greater part of the meeting held by the board of directors at 111 East Broadway last night. According to the by-laws read by President Rex Randall, provisions are to be made for maintaining an organization that will compare favorably with the large organizations of the state.

No final action was taken on adopting the by-laws, it being deemed best to defer action until the regular meeting of the club at 111 East Broadway tomorrow night. The resignation of Secretary M. E. Glenn was accepted and C. B. Hooker was elected to fill the vacancy.

The report of the secretary last night showed many new members had been added during the past week and it was decided to close the charter at the meeting tomorrow night.

Chosen General Manager

L. E. Thompson, one of the active members in the formation of the club several weeks ago and a present member of the board of directors, was elected general manager at the meeting last night, his duties as prescribed by the by-laws being rather varied.

The problem of securing permanent club rooms was considered at length and it was decided "to see what could be done about either renting quarters or building club rooms as soon as the membership would justify such action. In the meantime gymnasium classes will continue at least once a week in the high school gymnasium, the regular night to be decided upon at the next regular meeting.

Insignia Is Adopted

President Randall submitted three insignia designs for the approval of the directors and by vote it was decided to adopt a design of blue and gold with the three letters "G. A. C." as the official insignia of the club. Designs of this form will be worked out for the club stationery and pins. The dance and entertainment plans for December 10 were discussed and the matter of arranging the programs and entertainment was left to the committee, of which Rex Randall is chairman. A number of tickets was reported already sold and L. E. Thompson reported much interest being shown in the first dance and entertainment to be given by the organization.

ANNUAL CHARITY DANCE WILL BE GIVEN BY ELKS

Proceeds Will Be Used for Spreading Good Cheer
During Christmas

At the regular meeting of the Glendale lodge of Elks, which was held last night in the local clubhouse, arrangements were discussed for the annual charity dance to be given Saturday night, November 26. This will be an informal dance which will be open not only to Elks but also to their friends. All money cleared will be used to further the charity work of the local lodge at Christmas time. Announcement was made that "turkey" night will be observed at the next regular meeting of the lodge. At that time about 400 turkeys will be disposed of.

Considerable interest was taken in the discussion of the installation of an Elks' lodge at Ventura, which will take place December 2 and 3. It is anticipated that a large delegation of members, together with the band and drill team from No. 1289 will attend the installation ceremonies.

Several orchestral numbers were very much enjoyed by the members after the lodge meeting. They were also pleasantly surprised by a visit from William Bode, a member of No. 1289 who has been employed in San Francisco and is now in Glendale on a visit, and who rendered several saxophone solos.

BRITISH EMPIRE, THEN JAPAN FRANCE AND ITALY OFFICIALLY ACCEPT U. S. NAVAL PROGRAM

United States' Project Declared as Fundamentally Sound by All Great Powers; Some Modifications.
Will Be Made By Experts, It Is Believed

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The British empire, with its far-flung dominions all over the world, and Japan, the island empire of the Pacific, both officially announced their acceptance "in principle and spirit" today of the drastic naval limitations proposed by the United States on Saturday.

The acceptance by France and Italy, which had been counted upon, followed naturally when the statesmen from London and Tokio had finished addressing the conference.

Thus, in the remarkably short space of three days, the American government has proposed a program of naval destruction and future government unequalled in the history of the world and has had it accepted as fundamentally sound by all the great powers in the world.

After the spokesmen for all the four powers—British, French, Italian and Japanese—had spoken, Secretary of State Hughes spoke this nation's gratitude and said that their acceptance of the proposals as a basis on which to proceed was agreeable to the United States. Then the conference adjourned at the call of the chair.

Britain and Japan did not swallow the American program whole. They both made reservations, but agreed their reservations would not affect the scheme in any vital particular.

Great Britain suggested:—
1.—That it might be found advisable to prohibit absolutely the construction of giant cruiser submarines such as the Germans used with such deadly effect in the latter stages of the war.

2.—That it may be necessary to make some changes in the replacement regulations proposed by America.

Japan suggested:—
1.—The defensive necessities of each nation must be taken into consideration, and that,
2.—She will, at the proper time, propose certain modifications in the replacement scheme.

The whole history-making session occupied less than two hours.

Within half an hour after the armament conference had convened this morning, Great Britain formally accepted "in spirit and in principle" the far-reaching armament naval proposals laid down by Secretary of State Hughes Saturday.

"We have considered it at length," announced the Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, speaking for Britain, "and in admiration and appreciation, we agree to its spirit and its principle." The veteran English statesman concluded his speech at 11:45 by reading a cablegram from Premier Lloyd George, which gave his complete and wholehearted endorsement to the principles as laid down in the American program.

The cablegram from the British premier said:

"The British government has followed the proceedings of the opening of the conference with profound appreciation and wholehearted endorsement of the speeches made by President Harding and Secretary Hughes, whose bold and statesmanlike utterances are pregnant with infinite possibilities. Nothing could go further for the ultimate success of the conference. Please convey to both our most sincere congratulations."

(Signed) LLOYD GEORGE.

Then Japan fell into line. Baron Kato declared:

"Japan deeply appreciated the sincerity of purpose evidenced in the plan of the American government for the limitation of armaments. She is satisfied that the proposed plan will materially relieve the nations of wasteful expenditures and cannot fail to make for the peace of the world."

"She cannot remain unmoved by the high aims which have actuated the American project. Gladly accepting, therefore, the proposal in principle, Japan is ready to proceed with determination to a sweeping reduction in her naval armament."

"It will be universally admitted that a nation must be provided with such armament as are essential to its security. This requirement must be fully weighed in the examination of the plan. With this requirement in view, certain modifications will be proposed with regard to the tonnage basis for replacement of the various classes of vessels. This subject should be referred to special consideration by naval experts. When I know that the American and other delegations will consider them with the same desire to meet our own ideas as we have to meet theirs."

"Japan has never claimed nor had any intention of claiming to have a naval establishment equal in strength to that of either the United States or the British Empire."

Balfour, in his address, pledged Britain's "heartily and complete" co-operation in the carrying out of the program and this drew the audience to its feet with the first outburst of applause.

While accepting "in spirit and in principle" the great program, Balfour made certain reservations on behalf of his country, notably in the matter of submarines. He suggested the advisability of absolutely prohibiting the construction of "great ocean-going submarines," which he (Continued on Page 2)

W. W. McElroy of 510 South Adams street, who was watching the steam shovel excavating for the new Ambrosini hotel at Broadway and Glendale avenue yesterday afternoon.

Chamber of Commerce in Answer to Boost Work

Indicative of the hundreds of home-seekers hurrying to southern California for the winter months, the inquiries now being received at the Chamber of Commerce show that Glendale is widely known. Following are eight examples received in the morning's mail by Secretary James M. Rhoades:

L. B. Howard of Long Beach writes for descriptive literature on Glendale. He is a recent arrival from the east.

L. Knight of Santa Barbara, special agent for the Fireman's Fund Insurance company, expects to make Glendale his home.

Fred Dallenbach of Riverside asks for literature about this city as he is looking for a permanent location.

J. C. McConnell of Lancaster expects to come to Glendale to reside about December 1 and seeks information on housing conditions.

Information Sought

L. D. Bowers of Geneva, Ohio, also is coming here in December and wants advice about housing conditions.

E. X. Summers of Warren, Ohio, is another resident of the Buckeye state, who is California bound. He wants to hear more about Glendale.

Arthur W. Ryan of Ontario, Calif., is interested in Glendale and says he is coming here to live.

Mrs. W. L. Mitchell of Hickory, N. C. would like to know about homes here.

Each day brings a similar lot of letters, according to Mr. Rhoades, and his assistants are kept more than busy with the ever increasing amount of office work.

Henry Furinton, student secretary, is kept busy greeting new arrivals in Glendale while Assistant Secretary E. F. Sanders is showing them the city and gaining new members.

REAL JAZZ, SNAPPY VARIETY ACTS ON GLENDALE BILL

Plenty of Entertainment Is Promised Tonight; 'Ace of Hearts' Is Picture

Real jazz that is melodious as well as sprightly will be provided on the banner bill of the vaudeville season at the Glendale Theatre today.

The Bush de Bell Four, who are headlined on the Bert Levy coast-to-coast service, are highly commended as syncopators. They introduce a novel array on instruments and are one of the highest priced acts of their class in the country. Besides a snappy program of music, they have comedy features that will be well worth seeing.

Beech and Broth in the fastest talking act ever listed locally—its title is "Conversation"—will rate
headline honors, also, it is predicted.
Their work is so different from that of the Bush de Bell quartet that comparison will be difficult, but applause will tell.

Variety on Program

The Two Fishers have a novelty contortion act which will add variety to the program while Ann Montgomery sings in soprano tones that are really thrilling. Mac and Joe are a pair of singers, too, but they add a little instrumental music to their number and say a few bright words
so as to give the act a distinguishing mark from the rest of the bill.
From advance notices, it is safe to assume the theatre going public that no greater variety program could be offered at regular prices. Although it is Tuesday, Manager William A.
Hove advises the crowds to come early or wait for the second show tonight at 9 o'clock.

"Does the end ever justify the means?" is a question that is presented in the new Goldwyn picture,
"Ace of Hearts," by Gouverneur Morris, on the same bill. In this story, a group of idealists go to the extreme of being willing to commit murder in order to rid the world of those who have preyed upon the weak and helpless. The answer is dramatically worked out through a stirring series of episodes.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Burglars Better Beware
Tired of "Contributing"
Hark, Scots! Sweet Music
Measuring Mentality

By Gil A. Cowan

SINCE banditry has become rife, several local institutions are installing burglar alarm gongs.
And when a gong rings someone has better look out. There is going to be a dead robber.

Police Chief Allen O. Martin has been expecting the crime wave which is now sweeping southern California and for the month past patrolmen
and other city officials, as well as citizens, have engaged in target practice at the Sycamore canyon rifle range.

"All members of the force are good marksmen," commented the chief yesterday. "It behooves burglars, bandits and highwaymen to give this city a wide berth."

It is a matter of comment that two special officers were on the scene
within a few seconds after the Sebastian grocery was held up Saturday night. That J. L. Browne gave one of the robbers a run for his money and failed to kill him only because of pedestrians being in the way,
indicates how well this city of distances is guarded.

While the police force is not as large as it might be, the number of special officers and deputies, several of them with speedy motorcars,
makes crime here a precarious occupation. While the average layman does not know who these deputies are, let something occur and you will find one or more on the job within a minute or so.

Petty quarrels, minor investigations, etc., are left to the regular force to work out as a matter of routine, but when the emergency arises
the sufficiency of the police force as it is augmented with armed citizenry is demonstrated.

If reports are correct, congratulations are due the drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon club for an innovation in programs.

Instead of soliciting the merchants
for advertising to aid in financing
the production of three one-act plays to be given Friday night at the Glendale Theatre, the generous women are giving credit complimentary (free advertising) to those whom such credit is due, it is said.

Really, this must come as a happy surprise to the merchants who are tired of "contributing" to programs, benefits and other doubtful means of irregular advertising from which only the paid solicitor profits.

Hoot, mon! The Campbells are coming.
And ahead of them are the Mc-Dougalls, for it takes music to march by.

Alex McDougall of 128 West Elk avenue is a bonnie braw lad with the heather still a-hanging to his boots.
Yes, and he is the possessor of a fine set of genuine Scotch bagpipes
which arrived Saturday from Edinburgh—r-r-r.

They were ordered by his parents,
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. McDougall and they came a flying on the wind
as it were from the old country's capital, it being nothing more than twenty-six days since the order was sent from here.

Glancing at the headlines one cannot help but think what fools mortals be.

"Crowds battle to see Arbuckle
trial," "Obenchain again to wed Madalynne," "Burch cries protest on banded knee," "Antoiist dies in smash-up fleeing officer."

Imagine, if you can, anyone of these situations. Would you fight to see Arbuckle in court charged with manslaughter? Would you marry Madalynne? Would you even bend a knee to her? Would you flee an officer?

Question for Experts
"This," he said, "is a question for experts and does not touch the main question."

No doubt was left in the minds of those who heard him that Mr. Bal-four's government will canvass the world's naval situation in detail in committee before finally bringing the American proposal. Mr. Balfour spoke batingly, dramatically, of the geographical differences between the United States and the British Empire, and at one time he said:

"Imagine, if you will, what your western states, for whose safety you are responsible, were 10,000 miles from your coast. There, in brief, you have an idea of our problem."

Britain's Isolation
Balfour dwelt at great length on Britain's isolation, her dependence upon her overseas trade. He advised his hearers to imagine the heart of America, a "small crowded island,"
and then, he said, they could appreciate Britain's position.

Despite this, he said, his country was willing to take this "practical idealism" and give it "heartly support and co-operation."

"What makes this practicable," he said, "is that it combines the practice with the profession."

Hotel Guests Flee Flame

REDDING, Nov. 15.—Fire originating in the oil apparatus in the basement of the Hotel Lorenz was subdued by firemen after half an hour. Damage amounted to $5,000.
Smoke filled the halls of the four story structure, alarming guests who needlessly fled with their belongings.

Hearing on Cotton Rates

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—
Representatives of all Pacific coast
ports attended the Interstate Commerce commission hearing conducted here by Examiner Charles R. Seal
upon railroad cotton rates from cotton producing territory to Pacific coast ports for export.

The transcontinental rail carriers have recently attempted to establish rates from the cotton producing states, such as Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas on cotton in carloads to Pacific coast ports. The Interstate commerce commission suspended the rates following this protest and the hearing was ordered.

Big Iron, Coal, Steel Merger

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—It was announced here by L. F. Rains, president of the Carbon Fuel company of Salt Lake City, that a deal has been completed looking toward a gigantic Utah and Pacific coast iron, coal and steel merger which will make the west independent of the east for steel and iron. The merger represents a capitalization of $25,000,000 and leading Utah and California financiers, including Wig-

gington Creed, A. C. Denman, Jr., William R. Staats, Joseph Sloss,
Herbert Fleishacker, A. C. Ellis,
Jr., and a score of others.

The idea behind the merger is to develop Utah's great coal and ore deposits in connection with Pacific coast iron and steel mills. The interests in the merger represent a capitalization of $10,000,000 and the balance of the $25,000,000 is to be used for development. The incorporation of the merger is being worked out, but the name has not yet been decided upon.

Plan to Give Married Women's Jobs to Men Starts Argument; Detroit Mayor Makes Offer

Miss Rose Schneidermann.

Dr. Rudolph Dinder.

Mayor James Couzens.

By MARGERY REX.
Written for International News Service
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Mayor James Couzens, of Detroit, wants to take married women out of office and simultaneously remove loafers from park benches.

This is his proffered solution of the present problem of unemployment. While many men are out of work, numbers of married women are earning good salaries. Whether or not apportioning one salary to a family or giving up a married woman's job to a single man would be feasible has aroused some discussion.

Miss Rose Schneidermann, head of the Women's Trade Union League, questions the advisability of the plan, while Dr. Rudolph M. Binder, professor of sociology at New York university, is more in sympathy with Mayor Couzens's ideas.

"I am opposed to the idea of ousting these married women from their jobs to make way for idle men," Miss Schneidermann declared.

"The argument that they may not (have to) work is no more sensible than to say that there are many married men who don't have to work."

"Women's work as housewives and mothers has not been recognized or paid, and until the state does offer such recognition, why should not women have the right to seek employment and be self-supporting if they want to?"

"Married women have as much right to jobs and independence as single men have."

How Dr. Binder Views Case
We were wondering if some of the park bench idlers might not be the husbands of the married women with the good jobs, and if a wife's success in business doesn't often stultify a man's desire to achieve. With these questions we approached Dr. Binder.

Go to any grocery store and buy a package of TREE TEA Ceylon (BLACK)

Take it home and try it. If you don't find it the finest flavor you have ever tasted return it to your grocer, he will refund the full purchase price, no matter how much you have used out of the package.

"There is a good deal in the idea that a couple often does not get ahead in the world when both work," he said.

"Married women ought to be supported by their husbands, in any normally constituted society."

"It should be a man's job to look out for his wife and his children."

"Any society in which a married woman has to work presents an abnormal industrial condition."

"Women who look after their homes are amply employed. Houses require plenty of work to be presentable and comfortable homes."

"But I believe that there are few women working who don't have to be wage earners. If a married woman needs her job she should be allowed to keep it. It would not be right to take it away from her and give it to a single man who might be a 'bum' and not deserve it, nor be able to fulfill the requirements as well as the woman already in the position."

"That wouldn't be good for employers or employees."

"As for the married woman who works for mere pin money—or clothes money—to get finery with which to stir her neighbors to envy—SHE OUGHT TO BE SPANKED."

Have Regular Spending Race
If women earn money they feel they have the right to spend it. Then a husband with a salary-getting wife feels that he is freer to spend, too. Result—they both spend to the very limit of their resources.

"There is nothing left. They have no right to live that way."

"If a woman decides to marry she should be willing to have children and care for her home."

"The pioneer women of this country raised big families, worked for those families, and conserved the result of the husband's labors."

Miss Schneidermann's Opinion
But, in opposition to Dr. Binder's theories, Miss Schneidermann emphatically states:

"If society women want to work, they also have the right. It is good for people's souls to have steady occupation. Of course, they don't have to work as far as finances are concerned, but rich men don't have to go down to offices and take up professions either, except for the satisfaction and self-respect they get out of honest endeavor."

"In many cases where married women work, when they don't need the money, there are circumstances existing that we don't know about. There may be something behind it."

"We have got to have a remedy for industrial conditions that produce idleness, but the only one so far—is it only a palliative, not a remedy—is the 'unemployment insurance' proposition now widely used in Europe, where it has been tried and found effective. A small amount is given the unemployed—enough to keep them from being destitute."

"That would put the burden on the state and the employer. Without it the burden is all on the individual when business is slackened."

Frank Peterson, Your Son, Edward, Wants You

Edward Peterson, aged 15, is working in Glendale and looking for his father, Frank Peterson of Chicago, who is supposed to be employed in this vicinity. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of the elder Peterson should get in touch with the boy through this office.

Tractor School for Fordson Now Open; Instruction Is Free

A tractor school for Fordson tractor owners will be conducted every Wednesday night at 7:15 o'clock at the Jesse E. Smith Ford agency, 115-121 West Colorado street, it is announced by J. Danielson, Fordson salesman, who will conduct the school. This is the first Fordson tractor school to be conducted in the state, says Mr. Danielson, and will consist of lectures and instructions in simplified repairs and upkeep of the Fordson tractors.

Mr. Danielson came here about a month ago from Detroit, Michigan, where for two years he was in charge of instruction at the factory, where he was credited with knowing the Fordson "from the front axle to the rear wheel."

The course of instruction is free to all Fordson owners who are urged to come and bring their friends.

Campaign in Behalf of Salvation Army Is Progressing Here

The Glendale Home Service campaign of the Salvation Army for $2500 is progressing hopefully and the local and Salvation Army solicitors will begin a house to house canvass this week. The "100 at $10 or over" club is to be listed soon. Donations large or small are welcomed by the campaigners who carry credentials.

For the information of the public, Glendale is a recipient of Salvation Army assistance whenever cases for social service are placed in its hands. No other organization does as much with so little money as the host of the Salvation Army whose motto is "Servants of All."

DENIES ARBUCKLE RUMOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—District Attorney Matthew Brady has denied a report circulated here that Virginia Rappe, as a result of whose death Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle must stand trial for manslaughter, had made a statement prior to her death to George Glennon, a hotel detective, absolving the comedian from blame. Brady said he had Glennon's statement in signed form and that Miss Rappe had made no such statement to the detective.

THREE BIG CHAMPIONSHIPS IN FOOTBALL CIRCLES WILL COME UP FOR DECISION ON SATURDAY

Yale Will Tackle Crimson Bunch; Every Team in Big Ten to be in Action; California's Wonder
Players to Meet Stanford in Annual Game

By JACK VEIOCK

International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Coaches and players of leading football elevens throughout the country settled down today to the serious business of "pointing for the final games on their schedules." Saturday will mark the close of the season for many of the big teams.

Others will be idle Saturday, winding up their seasons on Thanksgiving day.

No less than three big championships will be decided Saturday. Yale will tackle the big Crimson eleven at Cambridge in an effort to annex the Big Three championship.

In the Big Ten, every one of the teams will be in action. On the far away Pacific coast, California and Stanford, the leading elevens on the sunset side of the Rocky range, will come to grips at Palo Alto. California is the favorite.

Some eastern team will be invited to play at Pasadena against the winner of this game on New Year's day.

The WORLD OVER

By FRANKLIN B. MORSE.
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Whether or not the America's cup races have anything to do with it is open for debate, but the fact remains that in the last few years there has been a marked increase in the number of yacht club organizations. Likewise the building of racing craft of various sizes, either by club members individually, or by the organization, has had a considerable impetus.

In order to encourage boat building the Corinthian Yacht club of San Francisco is selling coupons to its members at ten dollars a share, each ten dollars representing a chance for the ownership of the craft which is to be raffled after it is built. It is stipulated that the boat must be sailed for at least one season under the club's colors before it may be disposed of by the winner of the drawing. If the scheme proves a success it will be carried out annually in order to enlarge the club's fleet. In this way a member who does not feel financially able to own a boat through purchase may get into the game if fortune favors.

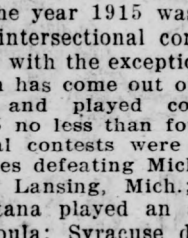

Polo at Coronado, Calif., will have a more active season than ever this winter if early indications count for anything. It is certain that many of the eastern ponies will be shipped across the continent to Coronado to be followed later by their owners.

Aside from the excellent climatic conditions that obtain at Coronado, the field there is considered by notable eastern players I have talked with as being one of the best in the United States, much study having been given the proper mixture of grasses to insure the best footing for the ponies as well as durability.

A correspondent writes: "Assuming that the day is a perfectly still one, without any breeze stirring, what is the greatest distance a football can be propelled by means of a place kick, measuring to the point of first impact with the ground when it alights? Also, can a football be punted as far as it can be place kicked?" We respectfully submit these queries to our readers.

In the light of certain incidents we have witnessed, we are forced to the conclusion that there are some girls who become partisans of one particular college at a football game for the reason that its university colors are more becoming than the others!

Many a fellow who sits in the stand and criticizes the playing of a football team never got mixed up with anything more dangerous than a domino game.

Sectional football games between college teams of the middle west and the far east against Pacific coast colleges is not as new as the present generation of football followers believe. Way back in 1899 the first of these contests was played when the then famous Carlisle Indian team defeated the University of California at San Francisco by a score of 2 to 0.

From that date until last January first no less than sixteen of these games have been played, the eastern teams having won eight to seven won by the Pacific coast teams. The eastern teams have scored a total of 215 points to 145 tallied by the coast aggregations.

From 1899 to 1908 inclusive four games were played as follows: California vs. Carlisle; Stanford vs. University of Michigan at Pasadena, Michigan won 47 to 0; 1907 St. Louis university played Washington state at Spokane and lost 11 to 0 and the next year the same team lost to Multnomah club at Portland 11 to 6.

The year 1915 was a banner year for intersectional contests and since then with the exception of 1918 some team has come out of the east every year and played coast teams. In 1915 no less than four of these sectional contests were played. Oregon Aggies defeated Michigan Aggies at East Lansing, Mich.; Syracuse and Montana played an all-tie game at Missoula; Syracuse defeated Oregon Aggies at Portland 28 to 0, and a week later the same Syracuse team at Los Angeles defeated the Occidental college.

Since that time Brown, Nebraska, Pennsylvania, Harvard, Nebraska, Dartmouth and Ohio State have all played on this coast, most of them in the great Pasadena "east vs. west" affair January first each year.

This year of 1921 also promises to be another big era of intersectional games. Penn State is already booked to play Washington State at Seattle

John Hackenschmidt Now Seeking Match With Bull Montana

John Hackenschmidt, 627 Salem street, who easily disposed of A. Metzetti, the Hollywood wrestler, in the main bout at the carnival Friday night, announces that he is ready to meet "Bull" Montana, who is now in San Francisco and who has been wanting a match with Hackenschmidt for some time.

As to the challenges offered by "Apollo" Romanoff, former Pacific Coast champion and Jack Ferry of Pittsburg, who challenged the winner of the bout last Friday night, Hackenschmidt says he is willing to meet any man of his own weight, ten pounds more, but doesn't care about getting out of his class as far as avoidupis is concerned. Should the match be arranged with "Bull" Montana, Hackenschmidt says it will probably be held in Los Angeles.

MRS. STILLMAN IS WINNER

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Another important legal victory was won by Mrs. "Fifi" Potter Stillman in her divorce suit against James A. Stillman, when Surrogate Cohan handed down a decision appointing her and her attorney, John F. Brennan of Yonkers, co-guardians of the estates of her two eldest sons, James, 17, and Alexander, 11 years old. Her application for appointment as guardian of the persons of the two boys was denied, however, in view of the pending divorce action in Putnam county.

RUSSIA SEEKS CONFERENCE

RIGA, Nov. 15.—Russian soviet government shortly will send a new note to the United States and the other four big powers, again urging an international financial conference with Russia participating. It was semi-officially learned here. The soviet will suggest that the meeting be held immediately after the Washington conference on limitation of armaments.

SINN FEINER ROUTES THUGS

BOSTON—Visiting members of the Sinn Fein army are most unsatisfactory subjects for the attentions of hold-up men, it was demonstrated here by John A. Kennedy, a 21-year-old veteran of the Irish republican army. Two highwaymen attempted to relieve John of $450. John objected and treated the bandits to a volley of revolver bullets.

AMERICA TO INSIST POISON GAS STAY FOR NEXT WAR

Prohibiting Use of Chemical Productions Not Practical,
Is Claim of Experts

By HARRY L. ROGERS
Written for International News Service
Copyright, 1921, International News Service.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—
The American delegation to the armament conference will take a firm stand against any attempt to do away with the use of poison gas in future warfare if it follows the views of experts selected to advise on that subject, it was learned from an unimpeachable source.

Almost limitless natural resources and thousands of skilled chemists—the United States enjoys a position of advantage in the production of poison gas on a large scale. To prohibit the use of poison gas entirely is practically impossible, since any nation might conduct its experiments surreptitiously and spring the terrible surprise at the most unexpected moment.

"Gas," said Brigadier-General Amos A. Fries, chief of the chemical warfare service of the United States army, and one of the chief technical advisers to the American delegation, "is too deadly, too dangerous, too easy to develop and produce in secret for any nation to give it up."

Makes Big Difference
For example, in the production of commercial indigo, which in point of volume leads the dye industry, the steps for nine-tenths of the way are perfectly harmless. At the final moment, however, the addition of one ingredient marks the difference between harmless indigo and the deadly mustard gas, perhaps the most feared of all those developed in the world war.

The dye industry, in which Germany excelled before the war, furnishes the means of producing dozens of deadly gases on a moment's notice. If the menace of poison gas in warfare is to be removed, practically the whole of the chemical industries of the world must be abolished, it is argued, a thing which experts say is manifestly impracticable.

General Fries, pioneer in the chemical war service of the United States in charge of that service in France during the late war, and chief adviser to the American delegation, believes the only limitations that can properly be placed on "chemical warfare" are those which might also be imposed upon other forms of warfare.

Defense Is Devised
For example, if it is declared to be contrary to the principles of international warfare to throw high explosive shells into cities from a distance of 100 miles he believes it should likewise be deemed contrary to international practice to throw gas shells in that city.

The American technical advisers are willing that limitations should be placed upon the use of gas, although they will stand out stoutly against any suggestion of its elimination. They have also formulated their views upon such other "novel weapons" of warfare as radio controlled apparatus, germs and epidemics, and these views will be given due consideration by the American delegation.

It is emphasized, however, that American intelligence has thus far been able to keep pace with the intelligence of other nations of the world, and that so far as the poisonous gases now known to science and actually experimented with during the world war are concerned, there is not a single one for which an effective defense has not been devised by American scientists.

A scientist declares that the giraffe is utterly dumb. Perhaps it is just as well. We never saw one yet that looked as if it had anything of importance to say.

Jewish Leaders Confer Honor on 'Do-It-Up' Brown

David A. Brown of Detroit is the man of the year, so far as American Jews are concerned. Louis Marshall, Nathan Straus, Julius Rosenwald and Felix M. Warburg were among the leaders from thirty-five states who, in a recent American Jewish Relief committee convention at Chicago, insisted that Mr. Brown cancel passage to Europe and accept the active chairmanship of a nationwide appeal for $14,000,000 on behalf of disaster-stricken Jews overseas.

Mr. Brown has risen dramatically from a newsboy on the streets of Detroit to become a financial and civic power in that city and a nationally known philanthropist. At his new office, 103 Park avenue, New York, he attacked the task set for him with characteristic vigor.

"We are going to put this job over," he said, "regardless of slow business, calamity howlers and all the other obstructionists that throw monkey-wrenches in the world's machinery. The plight of refugees, war orphans and devastated communities among our people in Europe this winter leaves the American Jew no choice in the matter."

Mr. Brown's nickname in Detroit is "Do-It-Up" Brown.

Local Talent Takes Part in Movie; All Scenes Secured Here

The first scene of a film thriller, "The New York Financier," is being "shot" today at the Southern Pacific depot by the Addis Film company of Los Angeles for the T. D. & L. theatre, the principals all being local talent. The leading woman will be Miss Virginia Huntley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Huntley of 221 West Broadway. Paul Hutchinson will be the leading man. Other characters in the play will be depicted by Doris Packer, Mildred Stanford, Eleanor Sawyer, Robert Frey, William Justina, Jr., Fred Terzo and several local merchants. This play, together with scenes taken in the schools, stores, offices, manufacturing plants and also of the Armistice day parade, will be shown in addition to the regular program at the T. D. & L. theatre Wednesday and Thursday, November 23 and 24.

Dynamos Club's Display in Parade Is Attractive

The Glendale Presbyterian Dynamos club was represented in the American Legion Armistice day parade by a beautifully decorated car, on which a large Dynamos sign was held in place by four representatives of the club. A cordial invitation is extended all young men to join this club for God and man.

At the greatest depths of the Black and Caspian seas there is no animal life. In the case of the Black sea this is on account of the presence of sulphuretted hydrogen in the water, while in the Caspian there is not enough oxygen at great depths to maintain any form of animal life.

G. M. STULL FAMILY PICNIC

George M. Stull, who recently started a second-hand store at 1420
South San Fernando Road, isn't content to make weekly trips to Long Beach—he is trying to move the population of Long Beach to the foothills, maybe. Anyway, Mr. and Mrs.
Stull, their son, Wesley, and 9-year-old daughter, Margaret, spent Sunday on a picnic in Griffith park, Los Angeles, with four families from the Queen of the Beaches. Margaret was slightly injured when she slipped and fell on a little but steep hill in the park and was unable to attend school yesterday.

WELL STOCKED WITH FISH

Francis Reichenbach, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. F. B. Reichenbach, returned Sunday from a weekend trip to their ranch near Piru, Ventura county. Mr. Reichenbach was informed that the government had stocked a nearby stream recently with 15,000 fish. He didn't have time to catch all of them, however. He was told, also, that the hunting in the neighborhood is excellent. The name of the stream is White Water—in Spanish.

MILLINERY IS PROSPEROUS

"The B. and R. Millinery is getting along fine," declared Mrs. C. A.
Richardson, 1517 South San Fernando road, yesterday afternoon.
"Guess we will have to hire some more help pretty soon. Things are coming along fine and we are all satisfied. Yes, we have only been in business since the first week in September."

IT'S BILL, BILL AND BILL

"There are now three 'Bills' in here," remarked W. L. Floyd at his shoe repair shop, 1503 South San Fernando road, yesterday afternoon,
commenting upon the employment of
"Bill" Hughes of Los Angeles last week. W. M. Darden, the shoemaker, who didn't know whether he was himself or his brother, is still on the job.

A. F. BARRETT IS SATISFIED

"Business is fine for the time I have been open," stated A. F. Barrett, proprietor of the Triangle Service Station, Cerritos avenue and San Fernando Road, yesterday afternoon.
"It is really better than I expected,
not being acquainted here at all. I am well pleased."

VISITORS AT LONG BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Cory of 820
South Central avenue and daughter, Margaret Lou, Mrs. N. A. Macbride

some new furniture. A hundred chairs are now being made for it by the Tropico Reed Furniture factory, according to D. L. Hutteall.

HIGHEST MILITARY ORDERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The unknown American soldier went to his grave in the Virginia hills November 11, decorated with the world's highest military orders. America bestowed the congressional medal of honor and the distinguished service cross. Great Britain pinned on the casket her prized Victoria Cross.
France contributed her Croix de Guerre and Medaille Militaire. Italy gave her gold medal for bravery.
Belgium put on her Croix de Guerre.
Rumania bestowed her Virtutii Militara. Czechoslovakia decorated him with the War Cross. Poland gave her Virtuti Militari.

SEEKS LIGHT ON LIGHTS

How he is going to manage to keep his windows lighted until 9 o'clock at night is the question that is bothering V. V. Brashear, who recently established The South Glendale Variety Store at 1413 South San Fernando road. He says that he can't ask a city employee or regular policeman to turn them off and that so far as he knows there is no
private watch service in the vicinity.
He is thinking about connecting his lights to an alarm clock, but says that this is against the city ordinance in Los Angeles.

AT DR. AND MRS. CAMERER'S

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Camerer of 311 West Garfield avenue, who have as their house guest for the winter their cousin, Mrs. Jennie S. Roberts of New York City, entertained over the week-end her son, Lieutenant Ralph Roberts of the U. S. S. Arizona.

Deaths and Funerals

MRS. DANIEL C. ANDERSON
Mrs. Daniel C. Anderson passed away at her home, 121 South Pacific avenue, early last night, Monday, November 14, 1921, after an illness of several months.

Funeral arrangements have not been made pending word from relatives in the east. Flowers may be sent to the L. G. Scovern chapel, 1000 South Brand boulevard.

Mrs. Hattie B. Anderson was born in Chicago 51 years ago and came to Glendale with her husband three years ago.

One of her brothers, Albert E.
Hutchins of Kansas City, was chairman of the recent national American Legion convention and accompanied her to the convention. She was in Washington upon their departure.
Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B.
Hutchins, also live in Kansas City.
Mrs. Anderson has two other brothers: Ray E. Hutchins of Milwaukee and Stephen B. Hutchins, Jr., of Chicago. Her only son, Horace Anderson, is in the army at Fort Lewis, Washington.

garden. She was a member of the fer her membership.

RAISING PRIZE PORKERS

DAUPHIN, Man.—"I want to deposit $400." The receiving teller looked through the iron bars with a bit of surprise. The depositor was a ruddy-cheeked lad whose chin barely reached the counter. He was grinning from ear to ear. "I just sold my hogs," the boy farmer said by way of explanation. He was one of the 25,000 members of the Boys' and Girls' clubs in Manitoba who are engaged in agricultural pursuits "on their own hook." Guided by provincial and dominion government experts, many of these children achieved sufficient prosperity this year to buy their own clothes.

A Kentucky court holds that a man who kisses his sweetheart on a street car is guilty of a misdemeanor. But who is going to be crabby enough to file a complaint, if the girl doesn't?

Nothing appears more surprising to those who consider human affairs with a philosophical eye than the ease with which the many are governed by the few.—Hume.

ness.

John R. Grey and H. C. Ellis Associate in Realty Business

H. C. Ellis today moved his real estate office from 300 South Brand boulevard to 128 North Brand boulevard where, with John R. Grey, the two will conduct a realty and insurance office under the firm name of Grey & Ellis.

Mr. Ellis is one of the enthusiastic boosters of Glendale and on a recent trip in the middle west distributed much literature concerning Glendale
that has resulted in bringing several tourists here with a view of purchasing property.

"Our new location means a larger office to take care of the increasing business," said Mr. Ellis. "I was formerly located at 120 North Brand boulevard before I moved to 300 South Brand. We shall be able to provide our clients with both business and residential property, with a specialty of subdivisions."

Mr. Grey is a local capitalist and believes Glendale is unexcelled as a home and business city.

"My associate, Mr. Ellis, is thoroughly acquainted with realty values in Glendale," he said, "and we intend to open a new subdivision on the San Fernando Road between Glendale and Burbank. This will prove a very good buy for those wanting to locate here, and the tract will be placed on the market just as soon as the necessary preliminaries can be dispensed with. We are both very optimistic over the present and future of Glendale."

Elaborate Settings Provided for Film Filled With Realism

Securing $30,000 worth of furniture for a single interior setting and then smashing the outfit before the camera produces photoplay realism,
but at a well-nigh prohibitive cost.
Yet that is what Cecil B. DeMille did in his Paramount production,
"The Affairs of Anatol," which will be shown at the T. D. & L. theatre for three days.

The setting in question serves as a background for a part of the story
portrayed by Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson, Elliot Dexter, Bebe Daniels, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts and other all-star players. It is an ultra-luxurious apartment and Howard Higgin, production manager for Cecil B. DeMille productions, was instructed to spare no expense.

The result was an attractive suite,
designed by Paul Irlbe—furnished with approximately $30,000 worth of furniture. This included a valuable set of Louis XVI chairs, a magnificent carved photograph case
of unique design, a grand piano,
lamps, mirrors, tables, a desk,
lounge, pictures and bric-a-brac.

At the climax of this episode, Wallace Reid was instructed to run amuck, smashing everything breakable in the set. The orders were comprehensive and Reid obeyed them to the letter. Not one stick of furniture remained in its original shape
when the vandalism was complete!

All Star Picture Is a Feature at T. D. & L.

The era of the all-star photoplay
is here and it is here to stay, according to Cecil B. DeMille, director general of Paramount Pictures, whose latest production, "The Affairs of Anatol," the first all-star photo-drama to be released by Paramount, will be shown at the T. D. & L.
theatre the next three days.

"The all-star cast has come to stay in answer to the public's demand for the very best acting," said Mr. DeMille, recently. "The public is becoming more and more critical as better and better pictures are produced. There was a time not so many years ago when the public was not so critical. Then anything would do. Pictures were very crude, indeed.

"Today the photoplay and the public form a cycle which is constantly functioning. The photoplay educates the public to a high standard; whereupon the public goes the photoplay one better and demands pictures of even higher calibre. The standard of motion picture production is being constantly raised by the producer to meet the steadily mounting standard of the public taste which in turn is based upon the quality of the pictures that have immediately preceded."

Realty Board Will Hold Meeting Soon and Perfect Plans

A meeting of the Glendale Realty board is being planned to be held soon, possibly this week, announced Secretary E. P. Hayward today, who stated that the governing committee would get together at this meeting
and outline the work of the board for the ensuing year.

"We have great hopes of accomplishing much for the good of Glendale by means of the Glendale Realty board," said Mr. Hayward,
"and we hope to have at least 90 per cent of the realty brokers in the city become members of the organization. Announcement will be made in a day or two of time and place of the next meeting."

SAYS ITS A 'CRIME CYCLE'

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The crime
is passing through a crime cycle, according to Wm. J. Flynn, famous detective, and until recently head of the Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice. Discontent, he declared, caused by hard times
and the abnormal conditions created by the war, is responsible for the wave of lawlessness manifesting itself in crimes of the old wild west
type such as the daring train robbery at Paxton, Ill., and the recent $1-000,000 holdup of a mail truck in the streets of New York.

Flynn, who has had a long and distinguished career in government secret service work, expressed the opinion that "inside help" made possible the exploit of the Illinois train robbery and that of the New York mail bandits. He urged the organization of a secret service in the postoffice department. "In looking over old reports compiled by me while in the government service, I find that crime cycles always follow unemployment and business depression
such as we now have," said Flynn.

MRS. G. H. ROWE HOSTESS

The members of the literary section of the Tuesday Afternoon club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. H. Rowe, 216 South Orange street, Mrs. F. L. Hollingsworth,

Hayward gave a splendid review of the magazines. Mrs. E. D. Cleophas gave a very fine review of the book,
"The Education of Henry Adams."
Both of these reviews showed a great deal of study and were very much appreciated by the members present.

At the meeting yesterday it was decided that an all-day sewing bee for the literary section booth at the bazaar to be given by the Tuesday Afternoon club will be held Thursday,
November 17, at the home of Mrs.
Rowe.

Detailed Statement on Railway Service in Eastern Section

The committee appointed several years ago by the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of obtaining Pacific Electric railroad service for the eastern section of Glendale will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Broadway school at which time a detailed statement of the financial transactions of the committee will be given, according to an announcement of F. H. Vesper, secretary and treasurer of the committee.

The committee, says Mr. Vesper, is urging that all those interested in the development of the eastern section of the city attend the meeting tonight as the consideration of immediate future plans will be a feature of the gathering.

The following statement has been made public relative to the matter:

"The committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce several years ago to obtain Pacific Electric railroad service for the eastern section of the city will hold a meeting November 15 in the Broadway school at 8 p. m. at which time a detailed statement of the financial transactions of the committee will be given. Consideration will also be given to further plans of the committee. All of those interested in any way in the work of this committee are cordially invited and urged to attend this meeting.

"The work of this committee has extended over a period of several years, during which time its members have given a great deal of their time in an effort to secure a right of way for the extension of the Pacific Electric railway system from Brand boulevard and Cypress avenue through the easterly section of the city to Broadway, thence westerly on Broadway to Brand boulevard. The committee's efforts have been partially successful thus far in that they have obtained the extension of the Pacific Electric service along Broadway to the Broadway school.

"Owing to conditions created by the great war, the committee was unable to complete its work by reason of the fact that a large number of those who subscribed to the right of way fund were not in position to pay their subscriptions. The committee desires to submit a detailed statement of its efforts to date in this matter to all who have subscribed to the fund, also to others who may be interested in continuing the efforts of the committee until the transportation service sought shall be obtained.

"Something of interest in regard to immediate future plans will be

COLLECTION STARTS FOR MUSEUM IN C. OF C. ROOMS

Elder J. O. Corliss Presents
Cane Having History; Also Gives Aged Newspaper

For a museum there is no place like Southern California, it is said, and already the Glendale Chamber of Commerce has the beginning of a collection which in days to come will be one of the most interesting attractions to the tourist as well as resident.

Elder J. O. Corliss, who resides on Verdugo road, has presented the Chamber with a cane made by a prisoner of war on the Island of St. Helena. A hand carved horse's head beautifies the handle of the walking stick. It was presented to General Cronje, the great Boer leader, whose widow personally gave it to Elder Corliss.

In addition to the cane a copy of the "Glendale Evening News" of January 4, 1890, containing the obituary of George Washington, was given to the Chamber by the pastor.

'DOES NOT MEAN ANYTHING'

CLEVELAND, Nov. 15.—"The action of the executives in giving notice of their intention to ask a 10 per cent reduction in wages does not mean anything," said W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, here. "As representatives of the railroads they have a right to ask for wage reductions, just as we, representatives of the men, have a right to ask for wage increases. It does not mean that they will get it, however."

Automobiles in the entire world total approximately 11,000,000, and of this number 33 per cent are in the United States.

presented and the committee feels that attendance at this meeting by those interested in the development of the eastern section of the city will be worth while.

Latest Styles Are Secured Exclusively for Glendale Women

When a woman goes shopping, she is prone to believe the larger city offers goods cheaper. This is not a fact, as evidenced by the announcement of Hatz Specialty Shop today in the advertising columns. However, in offering Glendale women the opportunity of buying the latest style of quality merchandise, C. J. Hatz has an explanation.

Ed Hatz, for many years a buyer for large department stores, found that he could do better by having a clientele of many small specialty shops on the Pacific coast. With this idea in view he established himself in New York and through personal friendship of years' standing, Mr. Hatz is the only merchant so represented in Glendale.

Mr. Hatz is conversant with the requirements of southern California and buys accordingly. As soon as new goods, cloaks, etc., are placed on the New York market, he buys in quantities and ships a limited quantity to each of the coast stores he represents. Not until the goods arrive is Mr. Hatz aware of what he will have to offer, so confident is he in Mr. Hatz' judgment.

This method of buying brings goods to Glendale thirty to sixty days before it can be placed on Los Angeles counters through the regular routine. The low cost of overhead makes it possible for Hatz to offer ready-to-wear about 25 per cent cheaper than the downtown stores.

Heavy buying for the holiday season makes it imperative that the stock in the Hatz shop be reduced. The attention of every woman reader of The Glendale Evening News is called to the offer.

KILLS WOMAN, THEN SELF

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—Mrs. Mary Toomey, 64, was shot and instantly killed by Matthew Collins, a former roomer at her home. Collins then committed suicide. He also shot Miss Agnes Toomey, 22, daughter of Mrs. Toomey. She will live. No motive has been ascertained by the police. It was learned from neighbors that Collins went to the Toomey home and was refused admittance by the daughter. He brushed against her and entered the house. The daughter followed him in and was ordered to leave by Collins. She refused to do so and he shot her in the cheek. He then fired two shots into the brain of Mrs. Toomey. Collins went to an upstairs room and fired a bullet into his own brain.

HEIRS FIGHTING FOR CANNIBAL ISLE OF SOUTH SEAS

Descendants of Disinherited Princess After Fortune, Says Colorado Report

By International News Service
ARVADA, Col., Nov. 15.—A vigorous legal battle for a portion of the huge estate which includes the cannibal island of Ogau, one of the Fiji group, will be waged by Mrs. E. P. Nolte, of this village, before it passes into the possession of Mrs. Louis Landrock, of Omaha, Neb., who it is claimed, has already left for the South Sea island to establish her claim to the estate.

The estate, surrounded by romance, and handed down by Prince Wolfert Wobbert, of Holland, nearly three centuries ago, is finding new claimants in various sections of the country, and international complications may develop before an agreement is reached that will result in a satisfactory and equitable distribution of the legacy, the value of which is estimated to exceed $10,000,000.

Crown Hangs in Balance

In addition to the money involved, the title of "Queen of the Cannibal Isle" hangs in the balance, awaiting settlement of the vast estate.

Mrs. Nolte, wife of a prosperous rancher here, declares that she has equal claims with Mrs. Landrock to the island, with its great groves of coconut, pineapple and breadfruit palms, and reefs gleaming pink along the shores, and plantations of sugar and rubber trees, all within the princely domain.

A romance that shows princesses revolted at parental decrees long before the days of the modern suffragist is responsible for the contest that threatens now to break all records for claims and counter-claims in the annals of disputed inheritances.

Princess Revolted

The story of the origin of the $10,000,000 estate as related by Mrs. Nolte, tells how Prince Wolfert Wobbert, angered because his daughter Anneka persisted in her love affair and married out of royalty, bequeathed her share of his island possession to the "seventh generation" of her descent. That was in 1654.

Mrs. Landrock, who, with her husband, is reported to have left her Omaha home and started for the island of Ogau, despite rumors that cannibals infest the South Sea island, is said to be of the "seventh generation."

Mrs. Nolte declares that she is also of the "seventh generation" from the Princess Anneka, who relinquished a throne for love.

When Mrs. Nolte learned that Mrs. Landrock was leaving the United States for Ogau to claim the estate she announced her intention of immediately beginning a legal contest for the fortune.

"By what right does she go to take possession of this island when there are others who are also of the 'seventh generation' from the Dutch princess?" Mrs. Nolte demanded.

"I do not understand how Mrs. Landrock, of all of us, is to be the only one to receive a share of this estate," Mrs. Nolte said. "I am of the 'seventh generation' and can prove it."

Threads of descent from Princess Anneka have been followed with great persistence because of the gigantic prize that will fall to the "seventh generation." The World War that upset even neutral Holland postponed some of the legal fireworks that will be displayed in the many-sided contest for the millions left by Prince Wobbert.

Lumber Company Is Incorporated; Stock Is Already Received

Incorporation papers were filed yesterday by Attorney W. E. Evans for the Independent Lumber company of Glendale. The capital stock of $100,000 is all paid in and the directors are named as follows:

E. F. Heisser, G. M. Heisser and W. E. Evans of Glendale; S. M. Anderson and A. W. Middleton of Aberdeen, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Heisser, the first two named, are residents of Glendale, having taken a home on North Louise street until they can build on Virginia avenue in the Huntley & Evans tract in Northern Glendale. Mr. Evans is legal counsel for the concern, while Messrs. Anderson and Middleton are Washington lumber men of prominence.

Through Mr. Heisser the company has purchased property on San Fernando road and Doran street in the industrial district of Glendale and already have an initial stock unloaded from Southern Pacific siding nearby. A spur track will be installed later.

E. H. Holt of Gridley, Calif., has been employed as foreman of the yards here and sheds and office buildings are under course of construction. A branch yard already has been established at Marian and others will serve the San Fernando valley with a mill here to meet requirements of builders.

The lumber will be shipped direct from Washington mills operated by the incorporators of the Independent Lumber company, it is stated. Mr. Heisser formerly was engaged in similar lines at Fargo, N. D.

A newly developed variety of cotton has the long fiber of the Sea Island cotton and has the advantage that it develops earlier.

The cellar is sure living up to its reputation of being the dampest part of the house.

Mothers Meet and Discuss Plans for Intermediate Work

Monday afternoon Mrs. Pierson Hanning, assisted by Mrs. Frank Ayars, entertained the members of the Executive Board of the Intermediate P. T. A. and the class mothers of the association at the Hanning home, 235 North Orange street.

They were very happy to have Miss Noble, principal of the school, with them, and listened with much interest to her announcement of the forthcoming "Educational Week," which is being planned for the first week in December. At her invitation they also discussed ways and means for doing the most good for the greatest number of pupils in the school cafeteria which is conducted under the auspices of the P. T. A.

A report was made by Mrs. Ayars, membership chairman, on the purchase of a picture to be given to the room showing the greatest percentage of increase in membership each month, and the silk flag to be given the room showing the greatest percentage of increase each month in fathers who become members. Mrs. Ayars then announced a present membership of 173, and warmly thanked the room-mothers for their co-operation in the membership work.

Mrs. Horner, philanthropic chairman, reported that the High School and Intermediate scholars would be asked to contribute five cents or more per pupil to furnish Thanksgiving dinners for Glendale's unfortunate ones, and that the county, exclusive of Los Angeles city, needed money for spectacles for children who were county charges.

Mrs. Cline, emblem and magazine chairman, asked for subscribers for The Child Welfare Magazine, and the Board voted to subscribe for one copy to be sent to the school. They also allowed the bills for the picture and flag, and voted to contribute their share to buy glasses for the children of the county.

The class mothers were asked to assist the courtesy chairman, Mrs. Andree, in preparing and serving refreshments on fathers' night, which will be held Monday night, November 21, at the Intermediate school. The program for that event is a profound secret, and those present found that one woman, viz., Mrs. Campbell, the program chairman, knows how a secret can be kept.

Those present expressed themselves as delighted with the spirit of co-operation being manifested by the teachers and parents of the school, and with the unfolding of new ideas looking toward the improvement of our school and its work. The attending women were: Miss Noble, Mrs. Ambrosch, Mrs. Seales, Mrs. Edna Brown, Mrs. Kulp, Mrs. Andree, Mrs. Alcholz, Mrs. Blake Franklin, Mrs. Horner, Mrs. Kille, Mrs. Ayars, Mrs. Sawyer, Mrs. Wattles, Mrs. Rowley, Mrs. Tepe, Mrs. Hanning, Mrs. Jepson, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Cline.

LEGIONS AND RED CROSS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—All American Legion posts in California have been called upon by the department commander, John R. Quinn, to enlist the services of their members in the fifth Red Cross roll call, November 11 to 24, it was announced today. "This is a direct appeal to all of us, who remember the work of the Red Cross during the war and who realize that their peace time work is of equal importance," said a letter sent out by Commander Quinn.

People have been resuscitated after being under water as long as 40 minutes.
